Federal-Mogul Introduces Comprehensive Line of ANCO® Rear Wiper Blades

Southfield, Michigan, January 30, 2010...Federal-Mogul Corporation (NASDAQ: FDML) has introduced a comprehensive new line of ANCO® rear wiper blades covering more than 95 percent of rear integral blade applications. ANCO wipers are “The Clearest Choice in Wiper Blades™.”

Featuring original equipment look and fit, new ANCO rear blades provide excellent wiping performance as well as fast, easy installation without the need for extra connectors. The new product line includes 11-, 12- and 14-inch wiper lengths and all four common arm connection types.

“Federal-Mogul and the ANCO brand offer exceptional quality and coverage through a complete line of wiper blades for any driving environment and weather condition,” said Peter Murnen, global marketing director, undercar and visibility products, Federal-Mogul. “Our new rear blade program provides consumers an excellent maintenance option that is available through thousands of convenient locations across North America.”

ANCO rear blades are now available for rear integral blade applications for each of the following global nameplates: Acura, BMW, Buick, Cadillac, Chevrolet, Chrysler, Dodge, Ford, GMC, Honda, Hyundai, Infiniti, Jeep, Kia, Land Rover, Lexus, Lincoln, Mazda, Mercury, Mitsubishi, Nissan, Pontiac, Saab, Scion, Subaru, Suzuki, and Toyota.

For more information, please contact your ANCO wiper blades provider, visit www.federalmogul.com, or write to: ANCO Marketing, Federal-Mogul Corporation, 26555 Northwestern Highway, Southfield, MI 48033. The complete ANCO product line is also listed in Federal-Mogul’s convenient, free www.FMe-cat.com electronic catalog.
